NEW COMMITTEES OF CITY COUNCIL

Presidents of Boards Name Men to Have Charge of City's Affairs.

SHORT MEETINGS.

Harmony Prevails in Both Bodies—Council Asks School Board to Explain Water Question.

An adjourned meeting of the new City Council was held last night. The session was brief, although a number of papers were presented in the lower board. There was but one paper introduced in the Board of Aldermen, a petition of W. T. Beach and Bro. for permission to build a shed. The petition was granted, but the Common Council non-concurred and referred the paper to the committee on streets. The Aldermen subsequently concurred in their action, as they did on all papers sent in.

The Presidents of the boards announced the committees of the new Council. They are as follows:

Finance: Aldermen J. M. Hill, W. W. Ballenger and Councilmen H. R. Burke, and Albert Bryan.

Light: Aldermen Jacob Brill, James B. Fitzgerald and Councilmen C. W. Wattles, R. L. Monroe and N. J. Lawler.

Streets: Aldermen C. J. W. Summers, Maurice Wilkins and Councilmen F. F. Marbury, James W. Bates and Charles L. Marshall.

General Laws: Aldermen W. W. Ballenger, George H. Robinson, and Councilmen Charles Bendheim and R. D. Brumback.

Public Property: Aldermen C. J. W. Summers, George H. Robinson and Councilmen William Desmond and C. S. T. Burke.

Special committee to investigate water rates: Aldermen W. W. Ballenger, C. J. W. Summers and Councilmen Charles Bendheim and R. D. Brumback.

At the meeting of Common Council last night Councilman Lawler, of the Fourth Ward, introduced the following resolution which was referred to the committee on schools:

"Resolved, That the City School Board be required to furnish the city council with all information as to why they should increase the expense of the said board in the purchase of water barrels and the delivery of water to the various school" daily, when such service had been offered to the board free of cost."

A resolution authorizing the council to take over the gas mains in Rosemont, a suburb, was referred to the committee on finance and light. The mains were laid by the Rosemont Development Company, and under an agreement with the city were to be purchased by the city when the consumption of gas in that section paid 6 per cent per annum or more. It was explained that the consumption of gas in Rosemont last year netted the city more than 6 per cent.

The committee on streets and general laws was asked to look into a resolution authorizing the city engi-

NEWS OF THE DAY

Seven men, railway construction employes, were burned to death in a fire in a hay barn just outside Lacrosse, Wis. The men are supposed to have stopped in the barn to sleep, with the result that the building was set afire by matches.

A report from the Russian capital says the aged Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria has suffered a paralytic stroke and that his condition is dangerous. A dispatch from London says he has been dead for twelve days.

A woman and her three young daughters were crushed to death and a man was so badly injured that he begged his rescuers to kill him when a Pennsylvania Railroad train struck a trolley car at an unguarded crossing at Bridgeton, N. J., early yesterday.

Margaret Nally, aged 18, was instantly killed yesterday morning when the car in which she and Geo. Dueker were in, plunged over an embankment on the National Pike, near Wheeling, W. Va. The girl and her companion were to be married this week.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, whose assassination in Sarajevo led to the present war, took an active part in the assassination of Archduke Rudolf at Meyerling Castle, in 1889, according to an accusation made in the Rusisan newspapers.

The Salvation Army was denied a permit yesterday further to conduct its business in Los Angeles. The action was taken by the Municipal Charities Commission and its effect will be to halt all activities of the army in the collection of alms and in the operation of industrial stores and workingmen hotels and everything else except purely religious work. The refusal of a permit was based on charges that a third of the money collected is sent to London and other centres. A rule of the Charities Commission prescribes that all alms collected here shall be used here.

Pope Benedict held his first consistory yesterday when the red hat was conferred on Cardinal Anthony Mendes Lello, Patriarch, Lisbon; Cardinal Guisasola Y. Mendez, Archibishop of Toledo, Spain, Cardinal Csernoch, Archbishop of Strigonia, and Cardina Piff, Archbishop of Vienna. All had been created cardinals at the secret consistory held on May 23 last, when Pope Benedict XV himself was elevated to the cardinalate. At that time however, they had been absent from Rome. While no official announcement was made, it was understood that Mgr. Boggiani, secretary to the recent conclave, Mgr. Scapinelli de Leguigno, papal nuncio to Vienna, were created cardinals.

John Christian, of Wheeling, W. Va., was instantly killed; George Wagner, of Bellaire, Ohio, was fatally shot, and two members of the police force of Mingo, Ohio, were wounded in a battle between Wheeling men and Mingo police yesterday. Mingo is the nearest wet spot to Wheeling, and a party of Wheeling men in an automobile spent the night there. Mingo officers caught them raiding a saloon, and a battle ensued. Christian met death at the first fire, Wagner was badly wounded and found on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River several miles south of Mingo several hours after the fight. He will probably die. The others made their escape.

REPORTED FALL OF FRENCH FORTRESS

Maubege Said to Have Been Taken After Siege By The Germans.

40,000 ARE CAPTURED

Activity of Russians on East Demands Immediate Attention of the Kaiser —Troops Rushed.

Berlin, Sept 9 via Sayville, Long Island, by wireless to the United Press.—It is announced at the army headquarters here today that the French fortress of Maubeuge has fallen before the German siege

Four generals, 40,000 prisoners and 400 guns are declared to have been taken in the victory, the greatest from the German viewpoint, since the war began.

It is stated that Prince Friedrich Wilhelm of Hessen has been wounded.

Berlin (via The Hague) Sept. 9—German trains are reported running directly into France from the north to a point twenty-two miles south of Sedan. The German engineers are restoring destroyed roadbeds and demolished tunnels and it is stated that as a result of the general activity, complete communication with the front is possible from a number of points.

The government is posted bulletins declares the battle is still in progress in France with the Germans inflicting enormous damage on the enemy.

It is plain, however, from the general tone of the announcements that the activity of the Russians in the east is now engaging the the attention of the general staff. In fact there have been rumors in circulation for the last two days that two of the main armies which have been operating in France have been withdrawn to meet the Russian attack, their places having been taken by troops from the first reserve line.

Generals Von Gotha and Nieland are reported killed in action.

The Bavarian troops have lost heavily and there is hardly a prominent Bavarian family that has not lost a member in the recent fighting. Thousands of wounded are being rushed to the newly established field hospitals in the interior. Only those whose condition makes it impossible to move them are being left at the field hospitals.

NEGRO HELD FOR ASSAULLT

Accused of Attacking Eight-Year-Virginia Girl.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 9—Russell Ellett, a Richmond negro, 18 years old, is in jail in Ashland, charged with an assault upon Violet Wright, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wright, of Doswell, Hanover county. The alleged offense occured Monday at Doswell during a baseball game. It is stated that the child was badly bruised and scratched, but that she was not seriously injured.

News of the assault spread rapidly, and while a posse was forming to search for the negro Ellett was picked up by a farmer and taken to the Wright home, where the child identified him. He was then hastened to the jail at Ashland to prevent mob violence.

MR FANNING'S ADDRESS

Mr. Fanning who is a well known orator, held the attention of the audience from the beginning of his address. He gave many points pertinent to the discussion and convinced his hearers that the passage of state-wide prohibition would be of great benefit to Virginia.

Reports from the Balkans say that the Turks are concentrating 80,000 men along the Tchatalja lines, outside Constantinople, with a view to opposing a possible Russian landing on the Black Sea coast.

WILLIAMS FLEEING.

May Take Refuge in America if Defeated.

London, Sept 9—In the event of Germany's defeat, the Kaiser probably would take refuge in America, according to the London Financial News, which says.:

"There can be no doubt that the defeat of Germany in the present war means for the Kaiser one of two things:

Either death by his own or somebody else's hand, or else fight to non-Teutonic soil.

Ever since Germany began to make preparations for attack, the Kaiser has been investing large sums of money on the other side of the Atlantic. He is one of the largest land owners in the Western States, but not in his own name, of course.

"He owns considerable sections of property in Western Canada. These investments in America indicated very plain that the Kaiser, at the time when he was preparing to stake the fortunes of his dynasty upon attempted conquest of Western Europe, also was preparing for the possibility of failure by consolidating his huge fortune in the United States, in case he has to escape to that part of the world.

"If he cannot boss Western Europe, the Kaiser means to have the finest house on Fifth avenue."

AN INCIDENT

This morning a gentlemen who frequently refers to the Gazette in order to get data as to past events opened one of the volumes. As chance had it the paper opened on Saturday, December 11, 1880. The words "Local Option, was the caption of an article which appears on the second page, fifth column, under the head of "Telegraphic News." It reads as follows: "A letter form Front Royal Warren county, in the Blue Ridge Echo says: This temperance move has been a great failure here. We are informed that whisky and all kinds of spirits can be procured notwithstanding the local option. No one has a license to sell the beverage, but it can always be procured. In fact, the "extract of hell," as we have heard it called, has become more abundant and can be sold cheaper since dealers pay no license."

It was so at the beginning.

ON THE VERGE OF A FINANCIAL PANIC

Serious Anti-war Panic Reported in Various Places in Austria.

TROOPS SUFFER LOSS

Russian Cavalry Follow Up, Decimating Rear Guard —Prussians Defeated in Mountain Passes.

Petrograd (St. Petersburg), Sept. 9—News that Austria-Hungary is on the verge of financial panic and that already there has been serious anti-war riots in a number of important centers has reached the Russian foreign office. While specific information is withheld, it is confirmed that the intenal situation in the dual empire is working in such a way as to promise materially to aid the Russian cause. In addition, the Slav troops in the Austrian service are said to be surrendering at every opportunity, and this, it is declared, is having a bad effect on the morale of the entire Austrian army.

"The fighting in Northern Galicia and in Russian Poland continues," says the war office, "with the Austrians in full retreat. They are being greatly harried by the Russian cavalry, which is decimating their rear guard. In addition, the army of General Rouzsky has attacked them on their right flank and is inflicting enormous damage. The Russian forces have attacked the strongly fortified position at Grosk, directly west of Lemberg, and on the direct railroad route to Przemysl, which is also invested.

"During the last three days fighting the army of General Von Auffenberg has suffered very heavy losses. One entire regiment of infantry was surrounded by a Cossack column and cut off. It surrendered with all equipment. The Russian's continue to capture the enemy's guns by a series of brilliant attacks which have completely terrorized the enemy."

It is confirmed at the headquarters of the general staff that Austrains have been defeated in a series of battles in the passes of the Carpathian mountains. The Russian cavalry has penetrated to the summits of the Carpathians and the army now moving through Bukowina province is reported already to have moved to the entrance of the Borgo pass.

ATTEMPT TO BURN HOUSE

Paper Saturated With Coal Oil Tied by Rope, Ignited And Lowered on Frame Building.

Mrs. Clara Robinson, who resides in a house on the south side of Cameron street, near Pitt, had a thrilling experience last night when she and the members of her family discovered that an attempt was being made to set the house afire.

The circumstances in the case are suggestive. Somebody, evidently with th intention of destroying the house, had made a bundle of old paper, which had been thoroughly saturated with coal oil and turpentine. A rope had been attached and the paper ignited, and as it started to burn it was lowered to the roof of the frame portion of Mrs. Robinsons home. Inmates, fortunately, had their attention attracted by the light and before the house had been materially damaged they ascended the roof and extinguished the flames.

It was supposed that the inmates of the house had gone to a moving picture show last night, and the incendiary, it seems, selected that time to start the conflagration.

Sept. 9—Staniilato Soldano, formerly of Washington, but for the past 10 years a resident of this city, where he had engaged successfully in business, ended his life at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, while in a fit of dependency, by firing a bullet through his heart. FIGHT WITH RACCOONS.

Maryland County Farmer Battles for His Life.

Federalsburg, Md. Sept. 9—Horace Robinson, a young farmer of Smithville, six miles north of Federalsburg, had a thrilling experience in the top of an oak tree Monday night with five racecons, which he encountered while on his way to visit a neighboring farmer. Before the battle ended, Robinson fell from the tree, completely exhausted. Three of his ribs were broken his thigh was badly injured, and it is feared he is internally injured.

The young man set out from home shortly after dark, and was passing through a strip of woods when he encountered the 'coons.' He followed them to a big oak, which the 'coons climbed. Thinking probably he could capture one of them alive Robinson also climbed the tree, but when he reached the 'coons they showed fight, and for 15 minutes the young farmer had to fight at a great disadvantage to save his life.

The 'coons got all around him, and though he kept his arms going like piston rods, the 'coons inflicted ugly gashes with their claws. Robinson kept up the fight from his perilous position until, completely exhausted, when he fell to the ground. He dragged himself, bleeding, to the county road, where his groans were heard by his father, W. H. Robinson, who picked his son up and carried him home.

ANTI-PROHIBITION WAVE SPREADING

Washington Politicians Think Local Option Will Win in State.

SUBJECT DISCUSSED.

Position of Governor Stuart Helps "Antis"—Great Change in Public Sentiment is Seen.

According to the views of Virginian politicians in Washington, who have the opportunity of securing a broad view of the situation in the entire state, there is a strong drift against the state wide prohibition policy which will result in a victory for local option on September 22nd.

A Washington correspondent sums up the situation in the following dispatch:

"The state-wide prohibition contest in Virginia, which will be decided at the polls Sept. 22, has developed during the last month into a sharp "nip-and-tuck" affair between the state wide prohibitionists and local optionists, with chances about evenly drawn for victory, according to Virginia political leaders in Washington who have been keeping their "weather eye" on the fight.

"A month ago the most optimistic anti-prohibitionist didn't have much hope of winning, and, on the other hand, the prohibitionists were claiming a 25,000 majority. Now, the local option forces are as the prohibitionists were six weeks ago.

"The drift against prohibition according to information reaching Washington, has been due to the announcements that Governor Henry C. Stuart, Harry St. George Tucker, Judge George L. Christian, Judge Theodore Garnett and other influential Virginians will vote in favor of the local option principle.

"The announcement of Governor Stuart, it is stated here, will have a potent influence on the election and some of the Virginians in Washington go so far as to say it has caused a big shift of "undecided voters" into the anti-prohibition camp.

"Governor Stuart is recognized as a strong and sound business man Virginia is now facing serious taxation problems, and the abolition of the saloon in the Virginia cities will mean that approximately $650,000 additional revenue must be raised to offset the deficit.

"There is a widespread feeling among the farmers that they will be called upon to meet this deficit with the result that they are wavering over to the side of the "antis"

"Governor Stuart's attitude will also tend to influence the agricultural vote, as the farmers regard him as a sane and safe leader.

"The local optionists are prosecuting a vigorous publicity campaign. They are relying more on advertisements in the weekly newspapers than upon sending speakers around to the cross-roads and towns. Nearly all the weekly newspapers are carrying from two to four columns of publicity matter, setting forth arguments against state-wide prohibition.

"Even the European war has been seized as campaign thunder by the local optionists. The taxpayers are told the war will necessitate increased federal taxation, and if the state goes "dry" it will be followed by increased state taxation with the result the taxes of the Virginia farmer will be a much larger expense item in the future."

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.
Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.
I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.
We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."
Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.
It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

CRUPPER IS NOMINATED

Republicans of Eighth District Hold Convention in Elks' Hall Today.

Joseph L. Crupper was this afternoon nominated by the Republicans for Congress from the Eighth District. Mr. Crupper was placed in nomination by David E. Robey, of this city. His nomination was seconded by delegates from the various counties represented in the convention after which the nomination was made unanimous.
Mr. Crupper was afterward escorted to the rostum by J. W. Gregg, of Loudoun, chairman of the committee on nominations. He thanked the convention for the nomination, and paid a tribute to the personnel of the convention.
The speaker declared that all should endeavor to effect a precinct organization to make a good showing and added that he would make an effort to get around during the campaign, which he said would be conducted from Alexandria. Literature, he said, would be furnished from national headquarters. He urged all to take up the precinct work upon their return home.
The following were elected members of the state excutive committee: William Brown, Loudoun; W. J. Ivey, Fauquier; J. A. Eggborn, Alexandria; M. K. Lowry, Stafford; J. C. Brooks, Fairfax.
H. P. Dodge, of Prince William, was elected permanent chairman, and H. A. Sager, of Herndon, secretary.
The Eighth Congressional District Republican Convention convened at 1:50 o'clock this afternoon in the auditorium of the Elks' Home.
The Convention was called to order by H. P. Dodge, District chairman of Manassas.
A total of 103 delegates represented the district according to the roll call, although only 65 delegates were present.
H. P. Dodge was nominated temporary chairman.
H. H. Sager, of Herndon, was chosen temporary secretary.
On motion of John Grayson it was decided to have three committees on nominations, credentials and resolutions.
Committees then named are as follows:
Alexandria City—D. E. Robey, Charles Dean and James Herrick.
Alexandria county—C. J. Costello, Thomas I. Donnely, E. E. Wilson.
Culpeper—S. Diener, M. D. Bettis, L. C. Tarrant.
Fairfax—R. R. Farr, L. L. Northrup, J. N. Gibbs.
Fauquier—L. C. Chappler, J. B. Grayson, John F. Walker.
Loudoun—W. B. King, J. W. Gregg, J. F. Divine.
Orange—J. W. Carter, M. W. Carter, M. M. Carter.
Prince William—E. Keyser, W. L. Howser, S. W. Burdge.
Stafford—J. C. Heflin, Henry Atchison, M. K. Lowry.
Committee on credentials reported no contests and its report was adopted.
The committee on resolutions reported the following: That the Republicans of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia re-affirm the principals of the Republican party for which it has stood for many years.
We favor a tariff which will protect America industries, which open the factories now closed under a Democratic tariff which will remedy the present business depression and which will furnish a market for the products of America farms.
We denounce the Underwood tariff act and its fatal consequences to American labor and to the prosperity of the American people.
The Republican party has always been a party of progress and we are proud of the substantial record of reforms achieved by the country under their control and we welcome to our ranks all truly progressive voters.

SERENE CONDITIONS IN NEW CITY COUNCIL.

The new City Council has begun its career under serene conditions. The rapid manner in which the business which came before the meeting last night was disposed of as in marked contrast to the many wranglings and delays which punctuated the proceedings of the two bodies during the past four years. Everybody seemed to be in good humor and of one accord. There was but one paper presented in the Board of Aldermen. The board disposed of it by a unanimous vote. It was, however, returned by the Common Council, that board having preferred to make another disposition of the matter The gentleman who introduced the petition immediately moved that the Aldermen recede from their action and concur in that of the lower board, and the motion was adaction of the Common Council on a number of papers was also concurred in by the Aldermen by unanimous votes.

The business, the bulk of which originated in the Common Council, was quickly dispatched minus tiresome discussions, points of order, appeals to parliamentary rules and the thousand and one questions which have so often blocked the wheels of legislation and caused bad feelings.

In the olden times the reports of committees were seldom questioned, and they were adopted by unanimous votes. While this may not always be proper, there is at times contention which could be avoided, as issues are too often raised over matters in which no vital principle is at stake.

JILTED MAN KILLS GIRL.

Oliver A Reynolds Confesses After Arrest.

Stuart, Va. Sept 9—Oliver A. Reynolds, a white farm labor was brought to the Patrick Jail yesterday charged with the murder of Miss Lelia Cockran, 17 years old, daughter of Jeff Cockran, a prominent Patrick farmer.

In a statement to Wade Hylton, who captured Reynolds, the prisoner confessed the crime, and said that Miss Cockran had spurned his attention, and rather than see her with anyone else he decided to kill her. Reynolds, according to Hylton, talked freely about the crime, and begged that Hylton kill him. He said that he had planned to commit the crime two months ago, but had seen no favorable opportunity.

Miss Cockran was in her father's orchard gathering apples in company with her older sister when Reynolds appeared. He first attacked her with a stone, knocking her down. She then ran in an effort to escape. He followed, attacking her at every step with a knife inflicting wound after wound in her back and arms, and finally when she became exhausted, he drove his knife to the hilt into her neck. She was taken to her father's home. She died a few hours later.

Reynolds was overtaken by a brother-in-law of the murdered girl. There has been talk of lynching Reynolds. The jail is well guarded.

CALLS FOR DAY OF PRAYER.

President Wilson Sets Apart Sunday, October 4.

President Wilson yesterday issued a proclamation calling for a day of prayer, Sunday, October 4, to Almighty God that He overrule the counsel of men and vouchsafe peace to the warring nations of Europe.

The proclamation, written by the President himself, the first and only one of its kind ever issued from the White House.

BE REASONABLE.

If Prohibition does not prohibit and more liquor is sold in dry than in wet territory, why is it necessary for a glass factory to close down because Virginia IS going dry.

Don't they ship the stuff in packages? Wouldn't you suppose that they would double their force instead of cutting it in half? BE REASONABLE.
